The Elephant, The Donkey and The Bull Moose.

(By F. THUMM, DEL RIO.)

The Republican and the Democratic parties could have selected no more fitting Emblems than the Elephant and the Donkey.

The Elephant in its prime, powerful, slow but sure, carried the G. O. P. to many accomplishments till wear and tear and natural decay which comes to all things mortal, made its retirement a necessity.

Of course in the selection of a new party Emblem, force of habit actuated many antiquated nonprogressive members of the G. O. P. to cling to the Elephant, although it is very apparent to most beholders, that the useful Elephant will die of inanition after November 5th.

The Donkey on the other hand after fifty years of existence has never accomplished anything but braying and keeping up its breed. He was too slow to get to anything except once and then kicked up more mischief, destroyed more crops and ruined more enterprises and factories than all the Elephants in existence. Notwithstanding his signal failures in the fields of political endeavor, he still has the audacity to parade the country promising his rejuvenating after November 5th; his new blood, new ideas and a brand new application in political economy; however, the people have been fooled too often by his promises and can't believe him any longer and after November 5th; he too, like his more cautious companion, will be relegated to obscurity where he rightfully belongs.

Instead of these aged Emblems we hold a young, vigorous and spirited Bull Moose as the selected new Emblem of the new progressive party which knows no North, no South, no East and no West, because it is by mutual agreement the Emblem of all nations of the country, and it is headed by Theodore Roosevelt as its standard bearer; we all know T. R. believe in him, because we saw him in action, he has been tried and not wanting; we knew him a young man as police commissioner of New York when he cleaned out the rotten force of that city as does Whitman today. We knew him as assistant Secretary of the Navy when the Congress appropriated $200,000 to defray target practice in the Navy which had been sadly neglected and the results of which were clearly shown in the Spanish-American war. We knew him when at the head of the Rough Riders he went up San Juan facing the bullets of entrenched snipers while his detractors were sending U. S. money in luxurious livery. We knew him as President of a great country when in the winter of 1906-1907 by reason of the great strike, coal went to $40.00 a ton, and the reach of the poor shivering masses, he forced coal barons and leaders to an agreement of their interests in the interest of humanity coal went down to within reach of poor. We knew him, when Emperors, Kings and potentates have tried to stop the bloodiest war in the world's history, he brought about peace between Russia and Japan. Above all we knew him as the motor and organizer of the greatest engineering canal ever undertaken by genius of men, after the completion of which, mankind at large will be benefited for all ages and the name of T. R. will go down in history as the greatest man of the 20th century.

Well, good old Elephant; you have been useful, but for the last four years, age told on you. You are too slow to keep up with progress; with regret, we say "Fare thee well." For the Donkey, there are no regrets, because he never got any place or accomplished anything. All he is braying and keeping up his hind; Donkey, you rightfully deserve to go down into forgetfulness unnamed and unsung. A new Era, a new Emblem, the Bull Moose, is our emblem and will be till we have accomplished that, which we have so fearfully undertaken.

New Fountain Notes.

BY NARRATOR.

2D ANVIL HERALD:

The recent northerners that have been sweeping down upon us are enough to convince us that the hot summer months are past and some of our denizens are of the opinion that a cold winter will also be experienced.

Last Wednesday afternoon in the New Fountain Methodist Church, Rev. J. F. Koch, pastor of the church, united Mr. Willie Weynand and Miss Mary Saathoff in the holy bonds of matrimony, and on Thursday afternoon he performed a like service for Mr. Henry Gronewald and Miss Mary Hardt. Both couples have many friends and the writer joins them in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

Mrs. Mary Hartung of San Antonio visited relatives and friends here the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Muennink and sons, Frank and Clarence, and daughter, Miss Hulda, left by auto the first of last week for Llano where they have gone to attend a golden wedding celebration.

Invitation cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of John Wiemers to Miss Ida Schneider, which will take place at Llano Oct. 30, 1912.

The New Fountain Lutheran congregation has also secured the services of Rev. L. Hofer as their pastor. He held services in the church last Sunday afternoon and will again hold services at 10 A. M. Sunday, October 27th.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Senne was christened in the New Fountain Lutheran church last Sunday. The name given the child was Herbert Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartmann acted as sponsors.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Treude and daughter, Miss Christine, and Miss Louisa Zorn, all of Yorktown, are here on a visit to relatives, the Grells and F. H. Bohlen and family.

Miss Minnie Carter of Sabinal arrived Sunday to take charge of the Vandenberg school which opened Monday. To-day's inclement weather is disappointing to cotton pickers as well as to those who have come to pick.

New Fountain, Texas, Oct. 16, 1912.

Commissioners Court.

Commissioners Court convened in special session here Monday. Commissioners B. H. Brucks, Aug. Tachirhart, G. B. Grant and J. B. Ney, and the usual officers were present.

The court canvassed the returns of the road bond election held in Precinct No. 4, October 1st, and found that the proposition to issue $40,000 in road bonds had carried by a vote of 144 for to 67 against, making a majority of three and four-tenths over the necessary two-thirds majority.

The court also canvassed the vote of the Yancey school house bond election, held September 17, 1912, and found the result as heretofore published 25 votes solid for the issuance of $10,000 in bonds. The court fixed the tax levy at 22 cents on the hundred dollars and also issued the bonds.

The court approved various bills and accounts. On Tuesday the court reviewed the proposed new road from Cliff, at C. Schuchart's house, west to intersect the diversion dam road a distance of five miles, and found right of way good for a roadway.

The court adjourned Tuesday evening.

A Correction.

Lacoste, Texas, Oct. 12, 1912.
Fletcher Davis, Editor
Hondo Anvil Herald.

Dear Sir:—

In reading your issue of the Anvil Herald of October 12th I notice that your writer mentions the bazaar, which was given for the benefit of St. Mary's Church, in connection with the dance at night, which is very erroneous, for I am in position to know absolutely that the dance had nothing to do with the bazaar, nor did the church get a cent of revenue from said dance. I also positively know that the church would not have accepted a cent of money from a dance.

The amount cleared from the bazaar was $545.70, but the church had nothing to do with that dance. Therefore, I beg you in the name of fair play and honor to relieve your readers of the impression that the Catholic church of Lacoste is giving nightly dances in order to raise money to pay the debts, for such is not the case and never will be the case.

Therefore, it will not be necessary for any one to provide himself or herself with costly dancing slippers in the future when coming to Lacoste to attend a church festival which might be given for the benefit of St. Mary's church.

We are sure it was not the intention of our correspondent to place the church in a false light and regret that the language used is such as might have that effect. The effort to be brief and compass as many different matters as possible in as little space as possible often leads to such errors. We hope the publication of the foregoing will be satisfactory to all concerned.—Editor.

Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise party took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graff last Sunday afternoon. Supper was served by relatives and friends, after which music, singing and dancing took place. Music was furnished by Mr. Kieffer and others.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Graff, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Graff, L. Boehle and family, Jacob Schweers and family, S. Keller and family, C. G. Bendele and family, A. B. Brucks and family, Mr. and Mrs. X. Wantz, Mr. and Mrs. Nic. Koch, John Koch and family, Toby Koch and family, J. D. Hueschen and family, C. H. Sayers and family, E. H. Schweers and family, E. F. Martin and family, J. L. Mechler and family, Elmer Saathoff and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lippold, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Jungman, Misses Emma Graff, Emma and Minnie Boehle, Dora Schweers, Pauline Bendele, Annie and Christine Saathoff, Agnes and Della Koch, Alma Wiemers, Rica Muennink, Messrs. John Lebold, Nic. Kieffer, Henry, Adolph, Frank and Louis Graff, Herman and Robert Koch, Frank Finger, Willie Pichot, Jim Goff, Aug. and Robert Weynand, Ernest and Freddie Brucks, Henry Hueschen, Jno. Wiemers, Geo. and Emil Bohmfalk, Emil Muennink, Chas., Geo. and Leo. Schweers, P. L. Karrer, F. M. Lippold, Richard Carle, Robert Hartung, O. G. Grell and Albert Saathoff.

At a late hour everybody departed for their respective homes well pleased and wishing Mrs. Graff many happy returns of the day.

BY A FRIEND WHO ATTENDED.

Hondo Volunteer Fire Co.

At a meeting of the Hondo Volunteer Fire Company Monday night, the Chief gave a report on three or four recent fires in which the services of the fire boys had been called into requisition. Fires are becoming frequent here lately and the Volunteer Fire Company is becoming better appreciated.

An order has just been put in for 300 feet of 2 1/4-inch hose that will be very useful if fire ever breaks out in the neighborhood of a fire-plug. The citizens should see to it that more of these plugs are put in at exposed points about the city.

After the fire of Saturday morning a subscription list was started to secure another chemical engine to re-inforce the one now in use. At the meeting Monday night it was reported that nearly $300 had been subscribed. It will take $400 to secure the kind wanted. W. F. Miller has the subscription list and if you have not yet subscribed see him and help all you can. The town needs the extinguisher.

There is room in the fire company for a few more active energetic young men who are not afraid to fight fire to join, and every young man in town should feel a pride in being a member of the company.

Paint Better

Better isn't enough; paint best. A man bought "cheap" paint; saved 20c or 30c or 40c or 50c a gallon, didn't he?

Yes, and bought 40 or 50 or 60 or 80 percent more gallons; how much did he make on his paint?

And he paid for painting those gallons—a fair day's work is a gallon—how much did he make on the labor part of his job?

He lost a quarter or third of his money. How long will it last? not his money, the paint?

Perhaps half as long as Devoe. How long will his money last, if he buys other stuff as he bought that paint?

Better buy the best paint; it makes the least bill and least-often.

DEVOE
HOLLOWAY BROS. sell it.

Another Barn Burns.

J. W. Miller's barn caught fire from some unknown cause and was destroyed about six o'clock Saturday morning. When discovered the entire building was wrapped in flames and Mr. Miller barely had time to roll his buggy out of the shed before the building began to fall in. A wagon with a bale of cotton that had just been brought home from the gin Friday evening and rolled under the barn for the night could not be saved and burned with the barn. The fire had attained such headway before any one reached it that little could be done, but after the building had fallen in the Fire Company discharged several charges from their chemical extinguishers which, with the help of the bucket brigade, saved about 200 bushels of corn out of a possible 500 that were in the barn. Mr. Miller also saved a few bushels of oats from the 125 bushels in the barn and a few bushels of cotton seed from the two bales of seed that he had stored therein. Two tons of cane hay, about 800 bundles of corn fodder and a lot of other provender was destroyed. Mr. Miller estimates that his loss was about $1500 and he had no insurance. While the loss is a heavy one and will be keenly felt, Mr. Miller is thankful that about half his corn is yet in the field unharmed and for the further fact that the change in the wind during the night kept the flames away from his residence.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to publicly express my thanks to the people of Hondo in general and the Volunteer Fire Company in particular for the generous assistance they gave me Saturday morning in trying to save my property from the flames. I assure you one and all that your kindness will be gratefully remembered.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. MILLER.

For Sale or Trade.

We want to sell for cash or trade our livery stable in Hondo, Texas, will trade for farm or ranch land. If you want a good business please see us at once. Will sell with or without automobile. McCLAGHERTY & HORGER.

WANT TO TRADE YOUR OLD AUTOMOBILE?

Don't make a mistake when you trade your present car in on a new one. First make sure that it is the car you would choose if you were paying cash. Then get the best allowance on your old car that you can. But don't let an apparently big price for your old machine blind you as to the real value of the new car. See The Triangle on The Radiator.

If you are postponing your decision as to what car you will take, pending the disposal of your old automobile, consider carefully the cars that are made for trading. Remember that most buyers of the better grade cars have owned automobiles in the past and that they are disposing of those old cars because the cars failed in some particular to be completely satisfactory.

In the car that you plan to buy, you expect a more satisfactory automobile than is the one you are selling. Perhaps lack of power, or speed, or uncomfortable riding qualities, or lack of safety or some other detail has not pleased you in the car that you are selling. Naturally you will see to it that your new car will not be similarly unsatisfactory. You should further be sure that the new car is also satisfactory in all other essentials, such as staunchness, simplicity, freedom from mechanical faults, and also that it is modern in appointment, equipment and luxurious furnishings. And be particular that it is comfortable to ride in, that it is roomy enough for you to lounge about in and that it gives no trouble on the road.

The New HUDSON CAR That 48 Engineers Built

THE FOUR

No man need be told that Howard E. Coffin leads all in building four-cylinder cars. No designer has built as many successful automobiles. In building the HUDSON "37" all his skill and experience contributed to its perfection. But in addition there was also worked into the car the skill and experience of his 47 expert associates. Thus was produced a car such as no one man is capable of building. It is truly a composite masterpiece. The "37" combines all that these experts know in the art of automobile building. Its detail of comfort, beauty, distinctiveness and equipment is precisely the same as that furnished on the "Six." The car has sufficient power for every requirement. It is quiet and free from the degree of vibration common to most automobiles. It is a simple, accessible, durable car—the best our 48 engineers know how to build; therefore we unhesitatingly recommend it as the Master of any four-cylinder car, regardless of cost power or make.

Models are Five-passenger Touring and Torpedo and Two-passenger Roadster at $1875 each. Open bodies with Limousine and Coupe, extra.

The picked engineers from 97 European and American automobile factories combined in building the New HUDSON cars. There are 48 experts in the organization, at the head of which is Howard E. Coffin, America's leading automobile engineer and builder of six famous cars. Combined, these men had a hand in building more than 200,000 motor cars. No car can be greater than its engineers planned it to be. We believe mechanical perfection is more quickly and thoroughly accomplished through combining the experience and skill of many men than is ever possible if dependence is placed entirely upon one man.

Old Veterans.

A part of a speech of Frederick Metzger of Company A, 12th U. S. Infantry, in Quini, Medina County, Texas, at a reunion of the Mexican War Veterans in 1886.

Is there any thing more to be pitied in this our great United States than an old Veteran, without a home or friends, alone and decrepit, as he nears the end of life, except his old wife.

Old age often finds us weary and foot sore, and many would gladly lie down in their last sleep rather than feel the vicissitude that so often gathers about three score and ten. How beautiful the thought that old age is more of a dawn than twilight, and if home be happy and sweet how restful and peaceful are the last years of a long life! Old men, old Veterans of the Mexican War, my old Comrades, is there no one to soothe your last days and prepare your home in this serene and yellow leaf? Is there no friendly hand to lend the staff as you descend the hill nearing the valley and the shadow. There is one? Our great Uncle Sam. He is the only one that can help us in our old days for he knows that we have sacrificed the early days of our life. He knows our valor and patriotism. He knows the Nation we have conquered. He knows the Territory we have gained for him. He will recompense us so that we can live the balance of our days in peace and enough to support ourself and wife. Uncle Sam has also a home for him who has no wife, to console him in his declining days.

Houston, Texas.—At the fifth annual meeting of the Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association held in this city last week, Mr. B. B. Cain, President of that Association, recommended the establishment of a Farm Life Commission charged with the duty of making a special study of the growing and marketing of all farm, garden and orchard products, together with the problem of transportation in its relation to the producer. The commission is to be composed of five or more persons and they are empowered to employ a chief or head of the Farm Life Bureau and also engage the services of an expert rate man. The Executive Committee of the Secretaries Association will soon hold a meeting and select the members of the board and prescribe its powers and duties.

The Farm Life Commission is the outgrowth of the Commercial Secretaries Association with the Farmers' Union in the marketing cotton and presents a much wider field of co-operation between the agricultural and business interests.

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.

When you feel dull, out of sorts, discouraged, half sick and everything seems to be going wrong, you can blame it on your liver. It is torpid. You need

HERBINE

A Medicine of Power in All Liver Disorders.

When the liver is torpid, it throws its impurities into the system, which hamper every organ in the body. The result is that functional processes are not properly carried on. Impurities get into the blood, the stomach is bilious, the kidneys weak and the bowels irregular—generally constipated. Herbine clears out all these impurities, opens up the obstructed channels, strengthens the torpid liver, cleanses the blood, purifies and regulates the bowels. After the system has been thus overhauled, there is an immediate improvement. Appetite returns, digestion is good, the spirits rise, the mind clears of gloomy forebodings and everything looks bright and cheerful, which means, sound, healthy conditions everywhere in the body.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed by W. H. Windrow.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by W. H. Windrow.

Of course you feel bad when the other fellow gets what you want, but think how good it makes him feel.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Possibly it is because they have so much leisure that dogs and politicians can find so much to bark at.

A Marvelous Escape.

"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bastians of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of croup. As luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." Sold by W. H. Windrow.

On last Wednesday the 9th of October Judge Victor Koerner, the Ex Editor of the D'Hanis News and Miss Cora Kincheloe, of Utopia were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride. They boarded the train at Sabinal for San Antonio and from thence will leave for Oklahoma, where they will in the future reside.

Mr. Charles Walter, a young man who was raised here but was employed at Sabinal, had the misfortune of having four of his toes smashed by falling from the train last Sunday at Sabinal, which had to be amputated, and he received several other bruises about the face. He was conveyed to the Santa Rosa Hospital at San Antonio. The last reports are that he is getting along nicely.

Supr. W. N. Saathoff was over in this part of the county visiting the schools on Tuesday last. He reports the schools are getting along nicely and was well pleased with them.

We are glad to report Mr. Louis Enderle who has been confined to his bed for the past 4 weeks is able to be up again.

HUDSON "37" BREAKS TWO INTER-CITY RECORDS

Sets New Marks for Detroit-South Bend and Detroit-Toledo Auto Trips

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 5.—Two inter-city automobile records, Detroit to South Bend and Detroit to Toledo, were shattered by the new Hudson "37."

The new Detroit-South Bend record is 5 hours and 20 minutes, the former record being 7 hours. It was formerly held by a $5000 car. The Detroit-Toledo mark was previously 1 hour and 55 minutes. The new record is 1 hour and 39 minutes. Detroit to South Bend is 209 miles and the distance between this city and Toledo, O., is 60 miles.

The most notable record is that between Detroit and Toledo, the road connecting the two cities having the reputation of being the worst thoroughfare in the United States, being replete with fearful bumps and unevenness and scores of curves and plenty of sand.

A big 60 horse-power car was the driver's incentive for breaking the record. An engineer friend of his who drove the huge 60 horse-power car advised him to start about an hour ahead of him in his new Hudson "37", they were to dine together in Toledo.

The Hudson man demurred and said that he figured he would start out about the same time they did, or perhaps a little later.

Finally both got under way at the same time, the Hudson acting as pace-maker, and in an hour and thirty-nine minutes the engineer walked up to the clerk at the Secor hotel, Toledo, and said:

"Take a good look at me and note the time, please," which proved the record.

An hour and three minutes after he had reached Toledo, his engineer friend in the big car breezed in.

THE early fall rains while light for the most part have put the soil in fine shape for planting oats and other fall crops. The farmer with a good eye to business will not neglect these important matters.

It is the part of wisdom to spend little of your time upon things that vex and anger you, and much of your time on things that bring you quietness and confidence and good cheer.—Henry Van Dyke.

THE election will soon be over. Fate seems to have stacked the cards for Democratic success this year, but from Democratic headquarters comes the cry of needed funds to carry on the campaign. Is it possible that Democratic patriots will jeopardize the best opportunity for success they have had in a decade on account of a financial parsimony? It begins to look that way.

ALL the world hates a grumbler and a grunter. If you must groan take to the woods and lose it in primeval solitude; don't take the chances of its finding echo from some other already burdened breast. Since like begets like, a grouch is apt to awaken a kindred feeling in others with whom he comes in contact and soon there are a multitude of grouches. "Don't grunt; do your stunt"—and smile a little! You will find it lightening your own burden, and others seeing your cheerfulness will take up their own burden with renewed courage.

Cleaning, Pressing and Altering a Specialty

A WRITER in the Southern Ruralist in discussing the building of roads without bonds in a southwest Georgia County, among other things, says: "Our present road system was inaugurated about six years ago, when a special tax was levied, to cover the cost of tools and starting the work, amounting to about $12,000.00. Each year the work has progressed and the enthusiasm increased until at the present day, we are one of the most progressive counties in South Georgia on good roads. Our road system is now costing the county about $30,000.00 per year. To cover this cost a special road tax is levied amounting to 30 cents on the hundred dollars, which realizes about $18,000 on a tax valuation of about $60,000,000. There is a commutation tax of $4.00 per year on all eligible to road duty, and from this source between $8,000 and $9,000 is realized. Should these amounts be deficient at the end of the fiscal year, then a small levy is made to balance the account. Thomas county has built and is still building good roads without issuing bonds. Under the present system we have worked 560 miles of roads; 200 miles of this is through highways which are clayed, and grades reduced to a minimum. The county works about 25 convicts from the state's allotment and about 40 of the county's misdemeanor convicts. The work is under the supervision of the Board of County Commissioners, aided by the services of a practical road-building superintendent. Only recently the commissioners made a purchase of a traction engine and three graders at a cost $4,000.00 to carry on this work. This machine, with five men, does the work of ten men and thirty mules, working eight miles of road per day. The machine will eliminate thirty head of mules and their up-keep, which is quite an item, and one can readily see the machine will about pay for itself in one year, from the saving in feed bills alone. During the past year 250 feet of steel and concrete bridges have been completed and the same amount is under construction now. It is the intention to push this work along until all bridges are replaced with the best, thereby enabling the heaviest-loaded team to pass over in perfect safety." It seems to the Anvil Herald that what our Georgia neighbors have done Medina County might do.

Man's greatest enemies lie within himself. True we are all easily susceptible to injury from the outside, and our prayer should ever be that we be shielded from the evil intentions of our enemies. But the enemies that we need most to watch are those within. The devil of discontent has driven many a man from the sure pathway of success to chase a will-o'-the-wisp until his whole life is bogged in the dismal mist shrouded swamps of failure and disappointment. Thrice happy is the man who has found contentment—not the contentment of laziness and indifference but that contentment that is born of a desire to do his best in the sphere where fate has cast his lot, that envies no other man his small share of success and usefulness, and, in the language of the preacher, does whatever his hand finds to do with all his might, and finds his chief happiness in the consciousness that he has done it well. Such a man has no room in the garden of his heart for the weeds of envy, hate and spite for it is all taken up with the blossoms of contentment, love and happiness that spring eternal there and cast their fragrance, like incense from an unseen censer, all along his pathway through life.

PATRONIZE those who patronize us and we will all prosper. See?

ARTHUR Brisbane, chief editorial writer for the Hearst syndicate of newspapers, is said to be paid a better salary than is the President of the United States. And Norman Hapgood is paid twenty-five thousand dollars a year to write two pages of editorials a week for Collier's Weekly—about the same quantity of matter that we write every week for the Anvil Herald. But we lack a great deal of getting twenty-five thousand a year for our work! However, we have this satisfaction. We write whatever we please and get away with it! Probably neither Brisbane nor Hapgood would dare attempt as much!

BROTHER A. Gordon French, erstwhile quill-driver on the Del Rio News, has gone back to his former love, the Marfa New Era. In assuming the editorial tripod he assures his readers that he will endeavor to "curb his free-lance proclivities." If we thought it necessary to do so, we would advise—don't do it! For French to cut out such proclivities would be like a honey bee cutting out the honey!

HOUSTON'S BIG FROLIC

HOUSTON IN HOUSTON THIS YEAR WILL BE THE BEST EVER—THE BIG ONE.

CELEBRATES COTTON HARVEST

Thousands and Thousands of Outsiders Come Once a Year to Dwell for a Week Within Houston's Gates to Revel in Joy.

No-Tsu-Oh is Houston's annual festival, to join in which come yearly some hundred thousand outsiders from many points and many parts, to dwell for a week within Houston's gates, to revel in her carnival joys and—forget it not—to "get together" in countless commercial and business deals for the good of all concerned.

This year No-Tsu-Oh week will run through the days from November 11 to 16, both inclusive.

Celebrates Cotton Harvest.

No-Tsu-Oh celebrates the harvesting of the South's greatest crops and one of the world's first products—cotton. The No-Tsu-Oh Association, in whose hands is the making each year of this distinctive carnival, was formed 14 years ago, and the 1912 No-Tsu-Oh will be the fourteenth consecutive year held. Each year under the skillful work of its officers, directors and employees and by the guiding benefit of experiences gained, the week of mingled merriness and commercial exploitation has grown in brilliance, until now in pomp and importance it rivals New Orleans' famed Mardi Gras.

Only men of business solidity and success are chosen to handle each year the big carnival. The officers of the association are president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and thirteen directors. This year the president is J. W. Link, president of the Houston Land Corporation; the vice president is Abe M. Levy, president of the Levy Bros. Dry Goods Company; the secretary is C. M. Mayne, secretary-treasurer of the Bankers' Trust Company; and the treasurer is W. S. Cochran, cashier of the First National Bank.

Kingdom of Imagination.

For the week of the carnival, Houston transposes herself into the imaginary but gaily realistic kingdom of Tekram of Saxet, ruled over by the majestic and genial King Nottoc and his gracious queen (Tekram, you will notice, is the word market spelled backward, just as Saxet is Texas and Nottoc is cotton; take in the name No-Tsu-Oh, and the four spell, "Houston, Texas, Cotton Market").

This year, on Monday, November 11, the royal yacht bearing the king and queen and their party of carnival makes will sail up the Ship Channel and land with great pomp and ceremony in the borders of Tekram.

Flower-decked and rippling from her superstructure innumerable many colored flags and pennants, her decks crowded with the hued garments of the royal party; the whistles of the conveying fleet shrilling, and merrymaking crowds all about, the voyage of the king's yacht, and the coming ashore of the rulers of the No-Tsu-Oh and their attendants are events spectacular and charming.

King Nottoc and his fair queen are personages of brief rulership! Their reign lasts only through a twelve-month. Each year a new king and a queen are chosen, he from the representative citizens of Houston, she from among the city's social favorites.

The identity of the king is kept secret until his unmasking at the grand coronation ball Wednesday night, the closing of the third carnival day.

Though the queen, unlike the king, goes unmasked, her identity is not revealed to the revelers, until on coronation night she moves with her ladies in waiting and maids of honor to the throne at the head of the ball room, to be received by the king and crowned.

The coronation ball, and the carnival ball are premier society events. Indeed, the city's social season is formally opened by the coronation ball, where the year's debutantes—who are princesses in King Nottoc's official family—make their initial to the social public.

The carnival ball, always a social function of much importance, will be an masque.

Through the six flower-embroidered days of carnival week move art and industrial processions of much pretensions and preparation, and at night there are illuminated parades and brilliant fireworks. The principal illuminated parade "comes off" Tuesday night, and is devoted to tableaux and a portrayal of some one chosen subject—as, for instance, last year "The Arts and Sciences."

The list of carnival attractions is long and varied. There are football games, athletic contests, Midway shows and a host of festive features of the sort that draws visitors, by numbers of thousands from near and far. The last day is given over to street masking a la Mardi Gras.

LIKE A ROMAN CARNIVAL

THE NO-TSU-OH CARNIVAL AND INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION WILL BE MEMORABLE ONE.

SHOW INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISES

Will Be Celebrated at Houston, Texas, November 11 to 16, inclusive, in Truly Brilliant and Elaborate Style.

The No-Tsu-Oh Carnival and Industrial Exposition will be memorable in the annals of amusement and industrial enterprise by celebrating the opening at Houston, Texas, November 11 to 16 inclusive, in truly brilliant style.

The visitors at the exposition should not fail to witness the performance of De Ballestrier's Six Acrobatic Comedy Bears. The greatest of wild animal acts Europe has sent us. The act consists of six cinnamon bears and Mons. De Ballestrier, their trainer, is considered one of the best trainers of wild animals in the world today. His charges accomplish the most intelligent and amusing tricks imaginable. They are the oddest of musicians, comedians and dancers. They practically do everything but talk. Two of the bears, in particular, do a roller skating race, which is a scream from start to finish. This attraction will create oceans of laughter for both young and old, who will witness their amusing performance.

Another great feature will be the Kroneman Bros. An attraction without a parallel. America's foremost head balancers and comedy acrobats, performing amusing and hazardous feats of acrobatics never seen before, introducing their world famed acrobatic novelty creation, entitled "That Tall Dancing Lady." The Kroneman Bros. were the laughing sensation at the New York Hippodrome last season.

Millie La Bella and Dare Devil Hurley in their sensational and thrilling automobile act, entitled "Outloping all the Loops and Outgaping all the Gaps." This is beyond a doubt the most thrilling and sensational automobile act in the world. All other sensational acts are pigmies in comparison with this attraction. Millie La Bella, a young woman of marvelous charm and beauty, enters her automobile at the top of an incline 50 feet high. At a given signal from below she dashes downward 100 feet, striking a projection with such terrific momentum, hurling both car and occupant high in the air, when Millie La Bella leaps through space into Dare Devil Hurley's arms, while he hangs suspended by his knees in midair, thence dropping La Bella gently to the ground below. For sensationalism, extremely daring and originality, this attraction stands alone. Millie La Bella and Dare Devil Hurley will perform twice daily. At 11 o'clock in the forenoon and at 5 p. m. during the afternoon, during the entire week of the exposition.

Bartelli and Murphy in their famous acrobatic creation, entitled "Bumps and Falls." They are comedians of class and acrobats of caliber.

Casey and Milligan in their pantomimic laughing hit, entitled "Play Ball." This attraction was created for laughing purposes only and it is a scream from start to finish. This baseball stunt has been the feature of the New York Hippodrome for the past three seasons.

The Kallowski Bros., Europe's greatest head and hand balancers, perform dexterous and amazing feats of head and hand equilibriums.

Prevost and Brown, the comedy novelty entertainers, featuring "The Only Cork Screw Kid in the World." This attraction has been a star feature at the leading vaudeville houses throughout the East, and this is their first appearance in Southern territory.

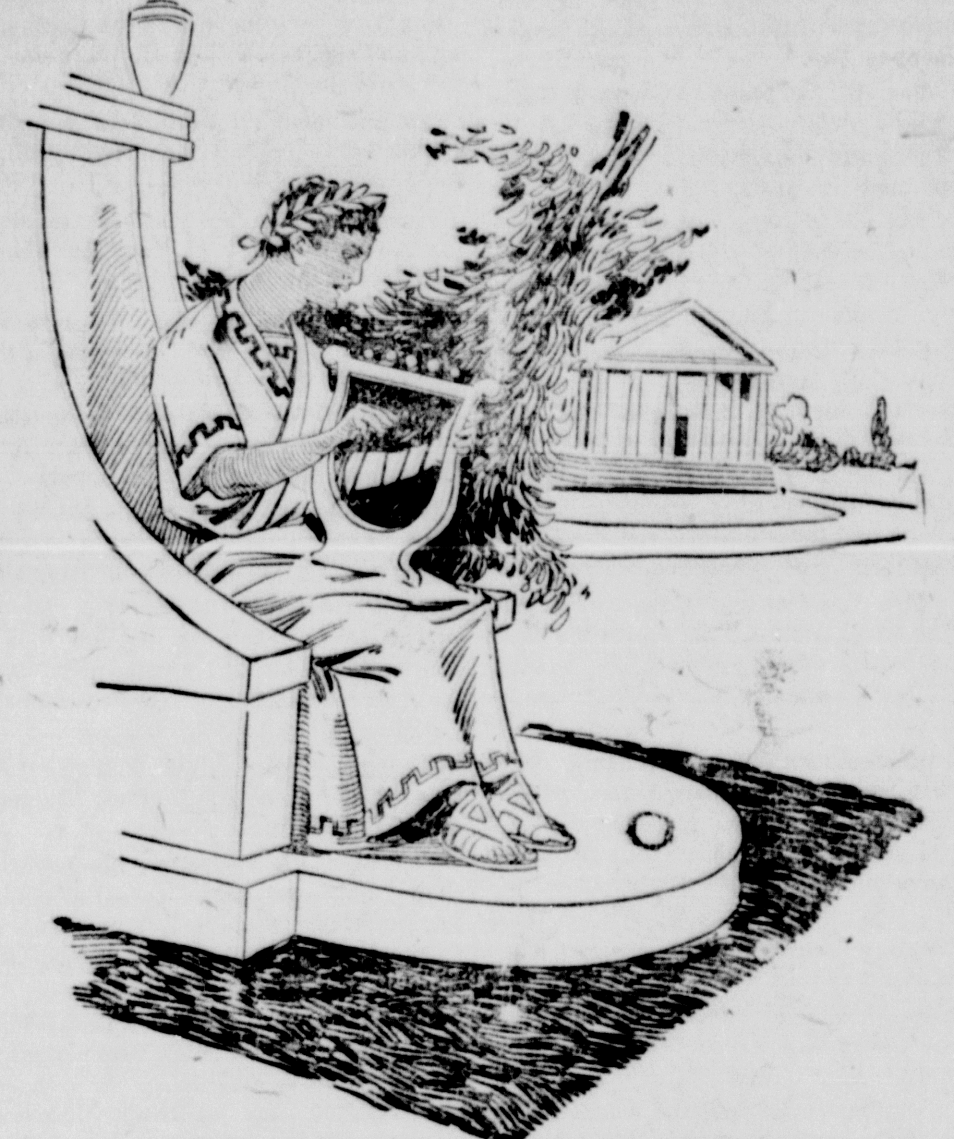

Alfred the Great. This member of the monkey family is considered by both press and public the most intelligent monkey in the world. Alfred the Great was born a monkey and made himself a man. His intelligence is remarkable. Among the marvelous achievements of Alfred the Great, some of the following are most noteworthy. He dresses, eats and conducts himself like a well-bred gentleman. Occupies the star dressing room whenever he appears, takes daily exercises on a specially built bicycle and steers it himself, takes his dinner in evening dress, using his knife, fork and spoon like a well-bred man; smokes after dinner and chats amiably with his attendant; drives an automobile like a veteran chauffeur. Alfred is passionately fond of jewelry and he wears a magnificent diamond solitaire on his finger. It will be readily seen that this program will be a distinct and genuine gala performance of all star attractions throughout and combined with many industrial exhibits and other sights of interest at the exposition, will make a visit to the exposition grounds this year worth your while.

TEXAS NEEDS GREAT MEN

MAINE MAKES A DESPERATE EFFORT TO FREE ITSELF FROM PROHIBITION YOKE.

XI. ENTERTAINMENT

WHEN Themistocles was asked by his host at a dinner party to entertain the guests by playing the lute, he replied that he "could not play the fiddle, but that he could make a small town a great city." We have in Texas many politicians who are good "fiddlers," but they cannot make a small town a great city. We are overrun with orators who can play upon the passions of the people, but they can't put brick and mortar together. We need builders.

A FAVORITE PASTIME OF POLITICIANS.

Let those who hunger and thirst for power understand that the highest glory of the statesman is to construct, and that it is better for a man that he should build a public highway than that he should become Governor of the State, and that he start a plow than that he become the author of a law. The true test of statesmanship is the plow and the hammer, and let those who would govern first build. Texas needs great men.

TWO WOMEN AND TWO CHILDREN

Journey Alone in Auto From Illinois to Colorado Without any Accidents

Two women and two children, unaccompanied by any man, have just finished an automobile trip of approximately 3,000 miles from Rockford, Ill., to the famous Estes Park in Colorado and return—equivalent to the distance across the American continent—in a Hudson car, the trip being probably the most remarkable in motoring annals.

Mr. Roberts, the Hudson dealer learned of the extraordinary journey today.

Mrs. Bertha A. Cooper, 501 Indian Terrace, Rockford, Ill., drove the car the entire distance. This trip was replete with hardships. The children of the party are aged 12 and 15 years.

The remarkable part of the journey is the speed which Mrs. Cooper made from Rockford, Ill., to Fort Collins, Colo., when trip occupied but five days, and probably constitutes a motoring record between the two cities.

Mrs. Cooper whirled across the western plains in going to Ft. Collins at an average rate of over 200 miles a day, which is considered a good hard run for a man.

The return was made via Colorado Springs, Pueblo and La Juanta and was accomplished in slower time, owing to stops to visit friends residing in those cities. Had the car given trouble, they would have been in severe straits, for in some cases they were scores of miles from habitation. But the trip was entirely free from any trouble whatever.

Mrs. Cooper relates that she met fearfully bad roads and that the rains rendered many of them impassible to the average automobile. Commenting upon the trip, she says: "Our Hudson came out of this severe haul in splendid trim, and kindly note that there was no man in the party to aid us. We had no difficulty whatever and merely fed the car gasoline and oil."

"We were told by natives of the mountainous sections which we traversed that we negotiated rocky hills and grades that had been made by few other cars."

The trip was full of many dangers, yet these women and girls did not

FIGHT IS BITTER

MAINE MAKES A DESPERATE EFFORT TO FREE ITSELF FROM PROHIBITION YOKE.

Paid Agitators Are Brought into the State to Fight Against People.

Augusta, Me.—The fight to take the prohibition amendment out of the constitution of the state of Maine has reached its climax of bitterness. The election will be held on September 11, when Maine is expected to throw off the yoke of prohibition under which it has staggered for sixty-five years.

State-wide prohibition was adopted statutorily by Maine in 1854 and put in the constitution in 1884. Since Maine has adopted prohibition the movement has spread throughout the south and some of the western states, and radical prohibitionists speak of nation-wide and world-wide prohibition. Despite their rosy optimism on the prohibition question the states which have tried it are gradually returning to a more sane solution of the temperance question. With the return of Maine to the legalized saloon, it is generally conceded that other states will quickly follow her lead. The fight in Maine for the retention of the prohibition amendment is being conducted by the Christian Civic League of Maine.

Paid Anti-Saloonists.

This league is being assisted by the paid talent of the Anti-Saloon league, which has sent into the state twelve of its hired reformers. These are led by Purley A. Baker, superintendent of the league; Howard H. Russell; Judge E. Z. Blair, of Adams county, Ohio; G. W. Morrow, former Michigan superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, who was caught colonizing voters in a Michigan election and dismissed from that state league, and others equally as notorious.

The fight has been extremely bitter. One Sunday-school association adopted a unanimous resolution, declaring "that any person who votes, or in any way influences others to vote directly or indirectly to so amend our constitution as to admit of a license of the liquor traffic, high or low, local or state-wide, is equally guilty of giving his neighbor drink and putting the bottle to him as the rum seller, and the woe of the prophet of God is upon him."

Woman Leads Fight.

The leader of the prohibition campaign is Mrs. L. M. Stevens, national president of the W. C. T. U. She is a resident of Portland, Me. Under her direction the whole state has been flooded with campaign literature, and the prohibition side is being fought by church women, Sunday-schools and women and children.

The anti-prohibition campaign is conducted by the Maine Non-Partisan Local Self-Government league, which is composed of men of the highest standing and backed by the four leading newspapers of the state. Newspapers in nearby cities are commenting on the fact that the Maine fight for the retention of the prohibition amendment in the constitution is the bitterest that has ever been waged in the country. They regard it as a sad commentary on prohibition, that after sixty-five years' trial the prohibitionists of the state have to put up the greatest fight of their lives in order to retain their prohibitory amendment.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE AND MAINE CIVIC LEAGUE FALL OUT.

Washington, D. C.—The reports from Augusta, Me., and Boston state that the Maine Civic league, which is conducting the fight for the retention of the prohibition amendment in the Maine constitution, and the Anti-Saloon league of America are at odds. The latter league has twelve of its paid workers in the state of Maine assisting in the campaign. Mrs. Stevens, president of the W. C. T. U., and the leader of the prohibition faction, refused to give her support to the imported paid orators of the league.

The league, it is said, then attempted to get the Civic league to raise $28,000 for the Anti-Saloon league's part in the fight. The amount that finally was agreed on is not known, but the Anti-Saloon league and the Maine Civic league have been working hand in hand.

Rev. S. E. Nicholson, Washington superintendent of the league, is denying the report from Maine.

HEADS OF MAINE'S MANUFACTURING PLANTS AGAINST PROHIBITION.

Bangor, Me.—The heads of practically all of the great manufacturing plants of Maine are a unit in condemning prohibition conditions as they exist in the state at present, and asking for regulatory laws under a constitutional license provision.

Fred W. Ayer, president of the Eastern Manufacturing Co., which employs 531 men at its South Brewer mills, believes there would be less suffering among the men and their families, and that his company would get more and better work from its employees, under a system of license regulation.

Mr. Ayer has been opposed to the prohibition amendment for over forty years.

"Maine has made a fool of herself," he says, "and has committed enough crimes through the prohibitory law in the last sixty odd years to stop it, and try something else."

STOCK CAR PERFORMS WELL ON SPEEDWAY

New Six-Cylinder Hudson Makes Better Than "Mile-a-Minute Speed."

The Hudson agency here yesterday received word of a remarkable performance of the '54' Hudson—a six—on the International speedway at Indianapolis.

With four passengers and baggage the car averaged over ten-mile course 63.1-2 miles an hour. The International speedway is a circular course of 2 1-2 miles. On the straight stretches the car achieved from 65 to 67 miles an hour.

One rather remarkable feature of the official test which is, not known to have been previously performed by any stock car was the attainment of a speed of 63 miles an hour from a standing start in 31 seconds.

The six-cylinder Hudson is regarded in the automobile industry of Detroit as not only the most wonderful creation in the field, but one of the finest from every point of view—beauty, comfort and convenience. There is nothing in the operation of the car that cannot be accomplished from the driver's seat. Just merely press a button to crank the engine, and the electric motor which does the cranking will keep it up for 30 minutes, should it ever be necessary to crank the motor that long in order to secure combustion. This system of self cranking has been pronounced virtually infallible. Oil and gas pressures are indicated by dials on the dash of the car. These can be seen even during the darkest nights, for there is a dash light that is so made that it will reflect upon the entire dash, including the speedometer and jeweled clock.

The quality in the upholstery of the Hudson car is not excelled by any other automobile for it is full 12 inches in depth, and the leather used is A-No 1 hand buffed.

Recently the new Hudson "37," which is the consort of the "54" Hudson, shattered the inter-city records between Toledo and Detroit and South Bend and Detroit, maintaining an average speed of forty miles an hour in each case.

BREAKING IT GENTLY.

A lady who had recently moved to the suburbs was very fond of her first brood of chickens. Going out one afternoon, she left the household in charge of her eight-year-old boy. Before her return a thunderstorm came on. The youngster forgot the chicks during the storm, and was dismayed after it passed to find that half of them had been drowned. Though fearing the wrath to come, he thought best to make a clean breast of the calamity, rather than leave it to be discovered.

"Mamma," he said, contritely, when his mother had returned: "mamma, six of the chickens are dead."
"Dead!" cried the mother. "Six! How did they die?"
The boy saw his chance.
"I think—I think they died happy," he said.

WAS UNWARY.

Mr. Catfish—Have they found out the cause of Willie Trout's mysterious disappearance?

Mr. Sunfish—Yes, using the baseball term, he was caught on a fly.

Yours truly,
J. E. Kay.

J. C. Ray, Winfield, Ala., says: "My father T. J. Ray suffered with kidney and bladder trouble so bad he had to use a catheter. Various kidney remedies were tried without results, and finally we gave him Foley Kidney Pills. In three days he could pass some water and on the fifth, no longer needed a catheter. He continued to use Foley Kidney Pills until entirely cured." W. H. Windrow.

To Calomel Users

Dodson's Liver-Tone is a perfect Vegetable Substitute for Calomel and is Guaranteed Absolutely Harmless

If you have trouble with constipation or biliousness, be careful how you take calomel, because calomel is a form of mercury, and if mercury remains in the system very long, it will salivate and seriously injure the strongest person that ever lived.

If you need something to start the liver to working take Dodson's Liver-Tone. It is a harmless vegetable liquid which will live up the liver better than calomel does and without any bad after effects. No restrictions of habit or diet is necessary. Dodson's Liver-Tone is as safe for children as it is for grown people and everybody likes its taste.

Buy a bottle for fifty cents from W. H. Windrow's drug store, and if you do not find that it absolutely takes the place of calomel, this drug store will give you your money back if you ask for it.

It seems that the men, both of whom are white men, quarreled over some trivial matter, one got a shot gun and shot the other one in the neck killing him instantly and then disappeared in the darkness. At last report he had not been apprehended.

The congregation of the Methodist church is circulating a subscription list to secure funds for building an addition to the present church edifice. The addition will be built on the east side of the present building and will cost about $7500. It will be used for a Sunday School room. About three-fourths of the required amount has been subscribed, so we are informed, two subscriptions being for $1000 each and several others of $500 each. The addition will add very materially to the appearance of the already attractive building.

Their Overworked Mother

"Read that, Bess," said Jane, passing a household magazine to her sister and pointing to an article entitled "The Overworked Mother."

"Do you think that applies to our mother?" asked Bess, with a little anxious frown, as she closed the magazine.

"Yes, I do. I think mother is overworked."

"But, Jane, she appears to like managing our little flat."

"Yes, she does appear to, but I believe she needs a rest. We should do all the work for a while, at least. Let's go out into the kitchen now and tell her to lie down or read and we'll finish whatever she's doing."

"What a reflection it is on us, Jane, that half the time we don't even know what she's doing?"

"It's just as the article says—'daughters become entirely blind to the uncomplaining drudgery of their mothers.'"

Mrs. Crandall was lifting a tin of beautifully browned cookies from the oven when Jane and Bess entered the kitchen.

"Did you smell them?" she asked, stopping midway in the verse of "Kil-larney" she was humming. "As I was finishing the breakfast dishes I happened to think how long it had been since I made any raisin cookies for you girls. I meant to surprise you with them."

"Mother, I think you do too much for us," said Jane.

"Nonsense! You know I like to potter around."

"Yes, we know," said Bess, in response to a look from her sister, "but Jane and I feel that you are overworked."

"And we intend," said Jane, "to relieve you of the burden of housekeeping. You're to have a much needed rest."

"Much needed nothing!" Mrs. Crandall's tone was scornful.

"You overdo all the time. I'll finish the baking of these cookies."

"How ridiculous you are, Jane! I'll bake these cookies myself, of course."

"No, dear," Bess spoke firmly. "You must go into the living room and rest."

"Yes, every one should have leisure for quiet contemplation," supplemented Jane.

Mrs. Crandall, somewhat awed, left the kitchen without further protest. Half an hour later her daughters discovered her deep in slumbers in the bathroom.

"I just thought this was a good chance to clean these gas globes," she explained. "You know, Mrs. Dexter never polishes them well when she cleans on Fridays."

"If they must be washed, I'll do it," remarked Jane, gently pushing her mother aside. "You know we want you to rest."

Mrs. Crandall looked perplexed, but she went to her own room. There an hour afterward her daughters found her darning.

"We have an engagement for luncheon downtown, mother—" began Jane.

"Yes, I know," interrupted Mrs. Crandall, "I'm glad you're going out."

"There's nothing to do for dinner," Jane proceeded. "I've got the roast, the potatoes and the pudding in the fireless cooker and we'll get home in time to take them out and make the salad, so you needn't go near the kitchen." She spoke conclusively and her mother sighed.

"Why don't you go out somewhere?" asked Bess. "It's too bright a day to stay indoors."

"I can't see to darn on a dark day," was the somewhat testy answer.

At five o'clock the girls came home and found their mother in the kitchen canning preserves.

"Why, what are you doing now?" asked Bess.

"Well, I thought the peaches I put up last month weren't rich enough, so I've stewed them over again with a little more sugar."

"Oh, mother!" exclaimed her daughters.

"Now, my dears," Mrs. Crandall laughed, "don't reproach me for enjoying myself. Don't worry about my belonging to the class of overworked mothers."

Jane and Bess exchanged startled glances.

"Yes, I read that article this afternoon, girls, and it was a relief to my mind to find out what had caused this sudden anxiety on your part, for I really was afraid that both of you were getting a little—well, queer, with all that talk about quiet contemplation. Why, I can think better when I'm peeling potatoes or chopping meat than I can any other time. Now run out of the kitchen, both of you. It's no place for those nice clothes you're wearing. I'll get dinner on the table the way I always do. You girls help me a lot—when you don't interfere."

Eligible.

The magnate was asking about a certain man whom he thought of employing in a confidential capacity.

"Well, there's this about the fellow," replied he whose advice was sought: "the truth certainly is not in him!"

"Just the thing—then it can't be dragged out of him!" exclaimed the magnate enthusiastically. —Lippincott's.
